What the new owner agrees to

1. Abide by the code of conduct guidelines issued by the GCCF/FIFe
2. Provide a suitable loving home with a warm comfortable environment and plenty of opportunity for play and exercise with frequent human interaction
3. Ensure that the safety of the cat is of paramount importance and it is not allowed to roam free. If it is allowed outside, it must be with adequate supervision in a secure situation.
4. Provides free access to drinking water and suitable quantities of food and access to a litter tray
5. Keep groomed and regularly treated for fleas and worms as directed by their vet
6. Ensure the cat has an annual booster injection and health check by a qualified vet
7. Seeks veterinarian advice if the cat becomes unwell
8. Ensure the cat is neutered at 6 months (or when your vet recommends this procedure)
Take advice from the vet about early neutering if male and female kittens are homed together, to avoid a possible mating
9. The kitten has been sold as pets and placed on the non-active registered which means any resulting kittens cannot be registered as a pedigree cat.
10. If for any reason your circumstances change and the cat requires re-homed in the future, this is done in conjunction with the agreement of the breeder (Fiona Peek) or the cat is returned to the breeder before being promised, placed and signed over to any person, private or charity re-homing society.
11. That the breeder is informed of any serious illness, accident or the death of the cat.
